Hey, My name is Aayush Man Nanju. I am from Kathmandu, Nepal. I am a sophomore majoring in Computer Information Science here at Washburn. I applied to Washburn University because it has a great course structure and a renowned faculty in the computer science department. Ever since my early school life, I have been actively involved in the scouts—which I am continuing here as well. Furthermore, I enjoy playing soccer and exploring new places, especially on a road trips.